Oh the King of ThivotriyUr! I am helpless! Since I didn't have proper guidance and virtues, I was feeding and building my body instead of enlightening my mind and soul; Instead of good virtues, I filled my mind with evil; As a spoon without handle could not be used to take up curry, I am not able to take up right path without right guidance; As a toad in snake's captivity my mind wanders in fear and confusion, without a direction; Oh Lord!! Wouldn't You yourself come and protect this poor and misguided being and give me salvation?

With my mind as a boat, knowledge as oar, carrying anger as goods, I am sailing on a rough sea. When I will hit the rock of ego and sink into the sea, I won't be able to remember You. Oh the King of ThiruvotriyUr!! Kindly grant me the boon of remembering you for ever so that I can be saved from any evil!
